An Agreement

Between the City of Galway, Republic of Ireland and the City of Cambridge in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, United States of America

The City of Cambridge in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, United States of America, is represented by the Honorable Mayor Sheila Doyle Russell and the Corporation of Galway in the Republic of Ireland is represented by the Honorable Mayor John Mulholland, and;

Referring to a joint interest in establishing a protocol of friendship guided by the desire to establish friendly relations and cooperation between the Cities of Galway and Cambridge, which reflects the interests and efforts of our governments to strengthen friendly relations and cooperation between the Republic of Ireland and the United States of America, and;

Realizing that friendship and cooperation between Galway and Cambridge will contribute to the development and strengthening of relations between our two countries; to the consolidation of peace all over the world; and to the growth and improvement of humanity, and;

Considering the mutual interests of the Citizens of Galway and Cambridge toward each other's life and culture, manifested in the representative bodies of the Galway City Council and the Cambridge City Council, in the efforts of friendship and cooperation, have decided and agreed to the following:

Article 1

The present agreement is designed to determine the main spheres of cooperation and exchange between Cambridge and Galway, within the framework of existing relations between our countries and with the purpose of enriching them and giving them a more lively and dynamic character, taking into account all of the values of life and interests of both cities, thereby increasing mutual respect and regard for the shared history, customs and ways of life of each city.

Article 2

In order to implement the present Agreement, Galway and Cambridge will develop an appropriate program of cooperation and exchanges. Under the Program of Cooperation and Exchanges, Galway and Cambridge agree to implement an ongoing, substantive exchange of both information and representatives in the fields of: culture, economy, education and scholarship, history, science, sports, tourism, community life and the activities of the respective City Councils and their various departments. Galway and Cambridge agree that these exchanges may take various forms, including: bilateral meetings, celebrations, concerts and performances, exchanges of exhibitions, films, literature and other articles of culture, collaboration among educational institutions, joint research and economic projects, professional seminars, tour groups, and official delegations.

Article 3

To encourage the broadest possible participation of the citizens of Galway and Cambridge in the activities outlined in the present Agreement, each city shall endeavor to:

- a) Promote a positive atmosphere of cooperation and mutual understanding, encourage the participation of the broadest spectrum of the population in Sister City exchanges, and foster a free and open exchange of ideas, values and experiences.
- b) Encourage free contact among groups and individuals of the two cities, within the framework of the present Agreement.
- c) Regularly inform the citizens of their respective cities and each other about Sister City activities, and promote and exchange print and broadcast media reports on Sister City activities in both cities.

Article 4

Galway and Cambridge agree that, in order to implement the present Agreement, each city will seek to establish a recognized association, commission or non-profit organization to:

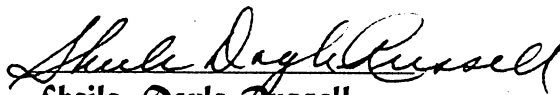

- a) Develop and manage the proposed Programs of Cooperation and Exchanges.
- b) Act as official representation for their respective City Councils in the facilitation of the ongoing aspects of the Sister City relationship, and periodically report to them.

Article 5

The present Agreement shall come into effect after its adoption by the City Council of the City of Galway and by the City Council of the City of Cambridge, and shall be deemed in effect on March 17, 1997 and shall remain in effect thenceforth for a period of two years.

In confirmation thereof, we have signed this Agreement today, in two copies both being identical and equally valid.
