COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
COUNCILLOR WALSH
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: On January 15, 1929, in the City of Atlanta, Georgia, a great man was born, one who would truly change his community, his nation, and his world; and

WHEREAS: The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. spent his life leading the forces of good in its eternal struggle with the powers of injustice and inequality, and inspired the oppressed to break the bonds of subjugation by proclaiming "To accept injustice or segregation passively is to say to the oppressor that his actions are morally right"; and

WHEREAS: Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s dream of a world where all men and women are treated equally has led people from all across the globe to join in the never-ending fight for freedom; and

WHEREAS: Through sit-ins and marches, legal agitation and moral persuasion, Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. led this country's pursuit of civil rights, voting rights, and, indeed human rights; and

WHEREAS: Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King suffered incarceration, intimidation, humiliation, and degradation for his dream, yet he never retreated; indeed, he intensified his struggle; and

WHEREAS: The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (N.A.A.C.P.), is one of the leading forces for justice in America, and has made great strides in helping America finally "see the promised land" where "freedom rings"; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge chapter of the N.A.A.C.P. organizes an annual breakfast to celebrate and reflect on what the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King has done for the world; and

WHEREAS: The N.A.A.C.P. has invited Jesse Jackson, Jr. to be the speaker at its ninth annual breakfast, a man whose father worked with Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and has dedicated his life to continuing Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s struggles; and

WHEREAS: The proceeds from this breakfast fund a scholarship to benefit local high school seniors who further the goals and ideals of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby join the Cambridge N.A.A.C.P., Jesse Jackson, Jr., all distinguished guests, and residents of Cambridge, in honoring and commemorating the life and work of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; and be it further

RESOLVED: That all Cambridge residents are hereby encouraged to support the 9th Annual Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Breakfast on Saturday, January 15, 1994, 8:30 a.m. at the Cambridge Marriott, and reflect on the progress made and work to be done in the American struggle for equality.

In City Council January 10, 1994.
