THE DANCE COMPLEX

Video by Kipley Wentz
Premier

Saturday, 1 March 1997
at CCTV
8:30pm viewing

A fundraising event for the Dance Complex will be held at the studios of Cambridge Community TV, 675 Mass Ave, in Central Square on Saturday, 1 March, 1997 at 8:00 pm. Tickets are $20.00; formal attire is suggested. Call The Dance Complex at 547.9363 for tickets or more information.

A tongue-in-cheek Hollywood style premier will be the venue for the first showing of the mini-documentary producer Kipley Wentz created about the Dance Complex. Though tickets are being sold for $20, artists who are dressed very formally will get a rebate at the door. Wealthy patrons dressed in jeans may face a surcharge. There will be a limousine ride from the Dance Complex to CCTV with some of the stars of the program aboard. Champagne and hors d'oeuvres will be served and there will be dancing to the live music of the Burrs, one the area's hottest bands.

What preview is complete without the review of critics? Graciously adding their opinions and wit, Jennifer Jordan of WGBH, and Tom Witkowski of the TAB will critique the video, the clientele and possibly, the champagne, too.
