

Cambridge, Apr. 17. 1861-

To the Honorable the City Council of the City of Cambridge:-

The undersigned respectfully prays that a name may be given, to a street leading from Concord Avenue to Garden Street, a little North West of Wyeth Street. - Since Street has been laid out for ten years and is built upon both sides thereof.

The shutters upon since street have suggested that it be called O'Connell Street, if since name be agreeable to the City Council.
