To the Honorable, the City Council:

The 121A application for the East Cambridge Community Development Corporation has been transmitted from the State Department of Communities and Development to the City for a public hearing and approval by the City Council. The Planning Board will hold their hearing on June 5, 1979 and send a recommendation to the City Council immediately after this hearing.

I would like to request that the City Council set a hearing to review and act on these recommendations for June 11, 1979.

Very truly yours,

James L. Sullivan
City Manager
