

Cambridge Nov. 11 1873

To the Honorable City Council of the City of Cambridge. -

I respectfully represents Mary A. Sweet, that she is the owner of certain premises at the junction of Webster Avenue and Windsor Street, taken by the City for the extension of Lincoln Street; - that the sum allowed by the City as damages for land taken is much too small, - the rate per foot allowed by the City being but 50 cts., whereas your petitioner is advised that the value of the land is at least $1.00 a foot. - That she had no actual notice of the hearing before your Committee on the matter of damages, and prays that the award may be revised, and fair compensation allowed her. -
