Attention: Mr. Joseph Connarton
Cambridge City Clerk

Dear City Councillors:

Under rent control law, I am allowed to live in an apartment owned by my mother and father. The Rent Control Board has refused to allow me to live in a rent controlled apartment owned by my mother and father.

The law states that I should be able to live in my family's apartment.

The law was made by the City Council. Rent Control should abide by it. Does the City Council have any control of this?

Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Jill A. Sullivan
