

City of Cambridge

In City Council

April 15, 1926.

WHEREAS:

Notice has been received of the death of Thomas E. Delahanty, a former member of the Board of Aldermen and the City Council, it is fitting that this Board should record its tribute to his memory.

Mr. Delahanty was born in Cambridge in 1890, lived here during his entire lifetime and was a graduate of the public schools. His life was one of constant activity, both socially and politically, and he made hosts of friends who will sincerely regret his untimely taking away. He was a most companionable associate, modest and unassuming and, during his two years of service in the City Government, he discharged his duties faithfully and conscientiously. It is therefore

RESOLVED:

That, in the death of Thomas E. Delahanty, the City sustains the loss of a valued citizen. The City Council bears testimony to the esteem in which he was held by the citizens and his friends and extends to his bereaved family its deepest sympathies.
