COUNCILLOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR WOLF

WHEREAS: Joseph Kennedy, II has honorably served Massachusetts' 8th Congressional District for many years; and

WHEREAS: During these years, Congressman Kennedy has been in the frontline for affordable housing, fair and equitable banking practices, and job creation; and

WHEREAS: Recently, Congressman Kennedy has been nationally recognized as the voice for the people with respect to the scandal of the Savings and Loan industry; and

WHEREAS: For his work on behalf of Cambridge residents and others in the 8th district, he won by a landslide, 79% of the votes cast in this year's democratic primary; and

WHEREAS: Most notable of his support in this past election is the support he received from the minority community, ensuring an easy defeat over his challenger; and

WHEREAS: Congressman Kennedy is well-positioned for re-election in the November elections and has also had the political benefit of a 40th Birthday on Saturday, September 26, 1992; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council extends its warmest congratulations and best wishes for continued success and excellence in serving the residents of this city; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk does and hereby be requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to Congressman Kennedy.

In City Council October 5, 1992.
