The MCNA Newsletter has regrettably not been published since spring, due to a shortage of staff. We expect to resume publication in the near future with stories on our September meeting with Police Commissioner Anderson, the S&S Restaurant's proposal for the BayBank building in Inman Square, progress on plans for a park in Quincy Square (in front of the new hotel), the need for a crime watch to respond to a recent rash of housebreaks, the Mid-Cambridge Conservation District Commission, and a Spanish college's interest in buying 26 Trowbridge St. (from the Lincoln Institute) for use as a seminar and administrative center.

--If you are interested in writing for or helping to produce the Newsletter and have the time--at least 1-2 evenings per month--please contact me at 492-4035.
