JOHN D. CROWLEY, CLERK AND AGENT

S. B. KELLEHER, M. D., MEDICAL INSPECTOR

October 8, 1935

Hon. Frederick H. Burke,
City Clerk - City of Cambridge.

Dear Sir:

At a meeting of the Board of Health held October 7, 1935, the Order of the City Council, requesting that the Board of Health investigate conditions at the Thorndike Field and Cambridge Field Playgrounds to determine whether blowing of dust is injurious to the health of the people in community, was considered, as was the report of the Medical Inspector regarding his investigation of said conditions; and, in accordance with vote of the Board, please inform the City Council that since receipt of the City Council Order, there has been no evidence of a health nuisance resulting from the blowing of dust at said Playgrounds. Nevertheless, the investigation of conditions, as requested, will continue.

Respectfully,
For the Board of Health

John D. Crowley
Clerk of the Board.
