To the Honorable, the City Council:

As you are aware, the City is currently in the process of completing property revaluations. Plans call for the State to begin to review the residential values the week of August 15th and the commercial and industrial values the week of August 29th. The State's review and certification of values is expected to be completed in time to allow for a timely mailing of the November tax bills.

Very truly yours,

Robert W. Healy
