IN CITY COUNCIL

November 25, 1985

MAYOR DUEHAY

- WHEREAS: At this time crime continues to instill fear daily in many American people in their homes, on the streets, and in all manner of public or private places; and
- WHEREAS: In our time acts of terrorism have disturbed the tranquility of our nation and many nations of the world; and
- WHEREAS: We live in an age when peace is threatened by those who trust war-making more than they trust the goodwill of human beings toward one another; and
- WHEREAS: Many Americans turn directly to the Bible to learn God's Word for our times and for such understanding as, they believe, can solve the problems of crime and terrorism and war as well as other problems of the human condition; and
- WHEREAS: The Layman's National Bible Committee has developed materials and media messages around the theme, "BRING YOUR MIND AS WELL AS YOUR HEART TO THE BIBLE", for National Bible Week to help people discover the truths for daily life found in the Bible; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council do hereby proclaim November 24 to December 1, 1985 as

"BIBLE WEEK"

in Cambridge, and urge all citizens to participate in this annual observance by reading the Bible to become familiar with its teachings and principles.

In City Council November 25, 1985.
