

City of Cambridge

37.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 15, 1995

COUNCILLOR MYERS
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
MAYOR REEVES
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: On Saturday, May 20, 1995 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. city and university officials, and area chess players will gather at the MIT Stratton Student Center, 84 Massachusetts Avenue, for a chess tournament to benefit Cambridge School Volunteers; and

WHEREAS: This event will be held in support of the terrific organizing abilities of Cambridge School Volunteers, under whose auspices more than 1085 members of the Cambridge community participate in volunteer programs and activities for Cambridge school children; and

WHEREAS: This tournament is being hosted due to the hospitality of MIT, who once again is demonstrating its commitment to community involvement and support; and

WHEREAS: Chess players from the Greater Boston area from novice to expert are expected to participate, and all are encouraged to attend; and

WHEREAS: One of the sidelights of the serious chess tournament will be a friendly chess match involving City and University officials, humorously dubbed the "Town-Gown Crown" by MIT's wonderful and very able representative of community affairs, Paul Parravano; and

WHEREAS: All will participate in the spirit of education and friendly competition; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record commending all those who have helped to organize this event including Audrey Melick of Cambridge School Volunteers, Paul Parravano of MIT, Marcia Duran, parent of a high school chess expert, and Brian Johnson area chess player, who will be directing the tournament, and further encourage all interested spectators and players to attend this educational and fun event.

In City Council May 15, 1995

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

37.

Councillor Myers

Whereas on Saturday, May 20 from 9a.m. 5p.m. city and university officials, and area chess players will gather at the MIT Stratton Student Center, 84 Massachusetts Avenue for a chess tournament to benefit Cambridge School Volunteers;

Whereas this event will be held in support of the terrific organizing abilities of Cambridge School Volunteers, under whose auspices more than 1085 members of the Cambridge community participate in volunteer programs and activities for Cambridge school children;

Whereas this tournament is being hosted due to the hospitality of MIT, who once again is demonstrating its commitment to community involvement and support;

Whereas chess players from the Greater Boston area from novice to expert are expected to participate, and all are encourage to attend'

Whereas one of the sidelights of the serious chess tournament will be a friendly chess match involving City and University officials, humorously dubbed the "Town-Gown Crown" by MIT's wonderful and very able representative of community affairs, Paul Parravano;

Whereas all will participate in the spirit of education and friendly competition;

Now therefore be it resolved that the City Council go on record commending all those who have helped to organize this event including Audrey Melick of Cambridge School Volunteers, Paul Parravano of MIT, Marcia Duran, parent of a high school chess expert, and Brian Johnson area chess player, who will be directing the tournament, and further encourage all interested spectators and players to attend this educational and fun event.

City of Cambridge

37.

IN CITY COUNCIL
May 15, 1995

COUNCILLOR MYERS

WHEREAS: On Saturday, May 20, 1995 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. city and university officials, and area chess players will gather at the MIT Stratton Student Center, 84 Massachusetts Avenue, for a chess tournament to benefit Cambridge School Volunteers; and

WHEREAS: This event will be held in support of the terrific organizing abilities of Cambridge School Volunteers, under whose auspices more than 1085 members of the Cambridge community participate in volunteer programs and activities for Cambridge school children; and

WHEREAS: This tournament is being hosted due to the hospitality of MIT, who once again is demonstrating its commitment to community involvement and support; and

WHEREAS: Chess players from the Greater Boston area from novice to expert are expected to participate, and all are encouraged to attend; and

WHEREAS: One of the sidelights of the serious chess tournament will be a friendly chess match involving City and University officials, humorously dubbed the "Town-Gown Crown" by MIT's wonderful and very able representative of community affairs, Paul Parravano; and

WHEREAS: All will participate in the spirit of education and friendly competition; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record commending all those who have helped to organize this event including Audrey Melick of Cambridge School Volunteers, Paul Parravano of MIT, Marcia Duran, parent of a high school chess expert, and Brian Johnson area chess player, who will be directing the tournament, and further encourage all interested spectators and players to attend this educational and fun event.

Entire membership

Consent Order #37

R-478

Councillor Myers re: Chess tournament to benefit
Cambridge School Volunteers on May 20, 1995
at MIT.

In City Council May 15, 1995

Order adopted.