To the Honorable City Council,
City of Cambridge, Mass.

Gentlemen:-

The School Committee have instructed me to present to you the following statement of the superintendent of schools:

"We have been making a tentative organization of the Morse School district for next year, and we find that unless immediate action is taken on the recommendation of His Honor the Mayor for an appropriation for an addition to the Morse School, the children will be forced to attend school in unhealthy and crowded rooms.
We already have two classes in the hall".

Respectfully yours,

Elizabeth S. O'Leary
Secretary of the School Committee.
