1.

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

IN CITY COUNCIL
November 1, 1982

- ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to order the License Commission to recommend to this City Council guidelines and policies for the future issuance and transfer of liquor licenses, wine and beer licenses, and all other licenses dealing with alcoholic beverages; and be it further
- ORDERED: That these policies shall deal with the number of such licenses suitable for each sub-area of the city (e.g., Central Square, Harvard Square) as well as for the city as a whole and shall include a limit on the number of licenses deemed suitable for each area of the city; and be it further
- ORDERED: That the License Commission shall also recommend explicit regulations in written form which make it clear that the City of Cambridge does not condone establishments which are the scene of repeated violations of codes or laws or on and around whose premises misbehavior, fighting, and violence occur; and be it further
- ORDERED: That the License Commission be asked to recommend to the City Council policies which provide for suspension and cancellation of licenses when such violations repeatedly occur; and be it further
- ORDERED: That these policies shall be recommended after hearing and soliciting testimony and suggestions from business, neighborhood and civic groups and from the city's building, health, fire, and police departments; and be it further
- ORDERED: That the License Commission, in the preparation of its recommendations, shall examine policies and procedures used by exemplary communities around the country; and be it further
- ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to make available to the License Commission assistance from the City Solicitor's office and from the Community Development Department in the preparation of these recommendations.
