

OBITUARIES

Dr. Richard Grozier, history professor, 65

Dr. Richard "Jim" Grozier of Winchester, a professor of American history at Framingham State College, died Friday at Winchester Hospital following a brief illness. He was 65.

Born in Cambridge, he was the son of the late Richard Grozier, former publisher of the Boston Post.

Mr. Grozier graduated from Belmont Hill School in 1948 and earned a bachelor's degree from Georgetown University in 1952. In 1954, he earned a master's degree in history from Georgetown, and in 1967 received a doctorate in history from Boston College.

Mr. Grozier was a professor of history at Boston State College for many years. He was a professor of history at Framingham State College.

He was a member of the Boston Athenum and the St. Eulalia's choir, which sang for Pope John Paul II five years ago at the Vatican.

A retired lieutenant commander in the Coast Guard, he served from 1954 to 1957.

Mr. Grozier lived in Framingham and Winchester.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth A. (Conway); two sons, Brian of Franklin and Damian of Scituate; two daughters, Mora Ragonese of Andover and Alicia Welch of Nantucket; a sister, Mary of Brielle, N.J.; and three grandchildren.

A memorial Mass will be celebrated at 5 p.m. today at St. Eulalia Catholic Church, Winchester.

Burial will be private.

Arrangements by Robert Costello Funeral Home, Winchester.
