

City of Cambridge.

~~City of Cambridge~~ In the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-three.

An Ordinance in relation to the removal of Ashes, Dirt, and ~~Street~~ Rubbish.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cambridge
as follows:—

Section 1. No person shall throw or cause to be thrown into any public Street, Place Court or Square, any dirt, Soot, ashes, cinders Oyster, Lobster or clam Shells, or filth of any kind; but the same shall be deposited in barrels or other suitable vessels and left in some place convenient for removal, and shall be removed under the direction of the Superintendent of Streets at least as often as once in each month.

Section 2. The Superintendent of Streets shall make such regulations as he shall think proper in regard to the days during which he will remove said dirt &c. from the different sections of the City, having regard, so far as possible, to uniformity and the convenience of the inhabitants.

Section 3. Any person offending against the provisions of this Ordinance shall be punished by a fine not exceeding Twenty dollars.

In Common Council March 4, 1863.

Passed to be enrolled.

Attest: Jos. A. Holl, Clerk

In Board of Aldermen, March 11, 1863.

Passed to be enrolled.

Attest: Justin A. Jacobs, City Clerk.

- An Ordinance in relation to the removal of Ollus, Dirt and ~~Gravel~~ correctly drawn

Sumner Albee

Geo. G. Ryder

Committee

City of Cambridge.

In the year One Thousand Eight-Hundred and Sixty-three.

An Ordinance

in relation to the removal of Ashes, Dirt and Rubbish.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cambridge, as follows:—

Section 1. No person shall throw, or cause to be thrown, into any public street, place, court, or square, any dirt, soot, ashes, cinders, oyster, lobster or clam shells, or filth of any kind; but the same shall be deposited in barrels, or other suitable vessels, and left in some place convenient for removal, and shall be removed, under the direction of the Superintendent of Streets, at least as often as once in each month.

Section 2. The Superintendent of Streets shall make such regulations as he shall think proper in regard to the days during which he will remove said dirt, &c., from the different sections of the City, having regard, so far as possible, to uniformity and the convenience of the inhabitants.

Section 3. Any person offending against the provisions of this Ordinance shall be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty dollars.

In Common Council, March 1963.

Passed to be ordained.

President.

An Ordinance

in relation to the removal of Ashes, Soil and Rubbish

1863

I do hereby Order that all of the above

are hereby enclosed.

Geo. A. Carter
J. C. Foster

Committee.