METROMEDIA PAGING SERVICE, INC.

Metromedia Paging Services, Inc., a subsidiary of Southwestern Bell Corp., has petitioned the Department of Public Utilities for a transfer of the certificate of Omni Communications, Inc. to provide paging services (tone only, tone/voice, digital display, alphanumeric display and traditional mobile telephone service) presently offered by Omni Communications, Inc. Metromedia has also filed a schedule of rates that it proposes to charge for its paging services. These rates would be applicable to "Omni" customers only, and differ from the rates that Metromedia charges to its existing customer base. (D.P.U. 88-261)

The above investigation is officially captioned:

Application by Metromedia Paging Services, Inc. under the provisions of Chapter 159 of the G. L. as amended, for a certificate as a radio utility, for the operation of a Mobile Radio Utility System for compensation within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

The Department of Public Utilities will conduct a public hearing on these matters on Friday, February 10, 1989 at 10:00 a.m. at its hearing room, #1210 Leverett Saltonstall Building, 100 Cambridge Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02202.

By Order of the Department,

Mary L. Cottrell
