Dear Margaret City Clerk,

in the inaugural swearing in ceremony, the councillors swore to uphold "The Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts".

Did "the Constitution refer to The Constitution of the United States of America or only the Constitution of Massachusetts ?

And if it meant the Constitution of Massachusetts then am I correct in assuming that nowhere in the swearing in ceremony are the councillors required to uphold and defend The Constitution of The United States of America ?

And if that is true is there a legal or constitutional reason for this And if so what would that reason be ?
