MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: On December 7, 1993, there was an attempt to abduct two ten year old girls from the M. E. Fitzgerald School; and

WHEREAS: This attempt was made by a man who posed as a substitute teacher and asked them to help him carry in some supplies from his car; and

WHEREAS: These brave and smart girls originally acceded to the kidnapper's request; and

WHEREAS: Because they were alert and suspicious of strangers, they smelled alcohol on the stranger's breath, saw beer cans in his car and concluded that this was a dangerous situation, refused to go near his car and ran away from him; and

WHEREAS: Their alertness and courage enabled them to escape and foiled the kidnap attempt; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record congratulating these brave young ladies for their courageous and intelligent response to a dangerous and frightening situation.

In City Council December 20, 1993.
