"NOTICE TO PROCEED"

Gentlemen:

The City of Cambridge is pleased to give you and your organization this formal "Notice To Proceed" with the construction activities contained in the contractual agreement.

This work shall be executed in conformance with the said specifications, as provided by the City, and completed to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Public Works or his designate.

I also call your attention to Item 112 (listed as "Accident Prevention" on Page D-1-6 of the Owner/Contractor Agreement) to the condition that "No more than two (2) of the four (4) parks shall, at any time, be engaged in construction activity." This said condition agreed to by Mr. Bob Frommer, your representative at the Pre-Construction Conference.

Please note that all business with regards to payment and/or project operation henceforth shall be transacted at the Public Works Department office, 147 Hampshire Street, Cambridge, Mass. 02139.

Attached is an "Acceptance of Notice" form which acknowledges receipt of this letter by Landscaping by Schumacher, Incorporated. Please sign and return this to me at the above address.

Thanking you in anticipation of a fully executed and satisfactory project,

Sincerely,

Everett Kennedy, Assistant Commissioner
& Project Director
