WHEREAS: Danny Campese, for the second year, ate his way into neighborhood folklore by easily winning the "Second Annual Guido's Spaghetti Eating Contest;" and

WHEREAS: Danny Campese thrived on this new competition by a newcomer to the contest, Irish James Henry of Roberts Road, and put on a show for the patrons of Guido's Florida Café; and

WHEREAS: The observers got their money's worth when "Campy" basked in the glory of victory down the home stretch, by engaging in jumping jacks and adding Romano cheese at the ten minute mark; and

WHEREAS: Fans again looked on in wonderment, wondering whether his amazing capacity came from his years of sneaking into the cafeteria at U-Mass. and eating under time pressure or formal training by his mother, Elaine, growing up in Corcoran Park; and

WHEREAS: This City Council has growing concern about rumors of "Campy's" early retirement from the sport; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record extending its congratulations to Danny Camplese and Guido's for keeping up neighborhood tradition and urges Danny Camplese to "not hang up his forks too soon;" and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to forward a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution to Danny Camplese and Guido's on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council March 2, 1998.
