- WHEREAS: Memorial Day is a time set aside to pay homage to the men and women of all wars as well as to recognize the suffering and loss wrought by war and to commit ourselves to strive to build the bridges of unity and understanding that can go far towards preventing future wars; and
- WHEREAS: In celebration of Memorial Day, we pause to give recognition to the brave women and men of all branches of the service who have displayed the epitome of courage and dedication to duty; and
- WHEREAS: The memory of an American veteran is one of a soldier in the next foxhole, valiantly serving our country while enduring the horror of war, a nurse dressing the wounds of battle-weary soldiers, or simply the memory of a loved one lost forever; and
- WHEREAS: For some, the memory is named etched in a black granite wall in the Nation's capital; and
- WHEREAS: This day, Memorial Day, is an opportunity to pay tribute to the sacrifices of all American's veterans, an opportunity to honor the more than one million men and women who have fought and died on battlefields around the world so that we might enjoy the freedoms we have today; and
- WHEREAS: Memorial Day will be observed on Monday, May 28, 2001, with a parade exiting the Cambridge Common at 9:30 a.m., followed by memorial observances at the Cambridge Cemetery and at Weeks Bridge on the Charles River; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City Council does hereby salute and applaud the brave fallen women and men who have served so courageously to preserve the freedom and safety not only in the United States, but all over the world.
