- WHEREAS: Marian Kathleen Agnew was a daughter of Cambridge who grew up here on Concord Avenue; and
- WHEREAS: Through the tutelage of her parents Violet Marian Durant Daly and William Henry Daly, Sr., she grew to be a substantive and stunning young woman here in the midst of Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: Marian led an exciting life which took her from Cambridge to New York and back to Cambridge and then to—visit the world outside the United States and then on to her much-discussed visits between the east and west coasts to visit children and grandchildren; and
- WHEREAS: Marian was a special woman who possessed great beauty and sufficient strength to raise her children and find the blessings of happiness throughout her long life; and
- WHEREAS: Today the City of Cambridge spreads upon its records the fact that Marian Agnew benefited this City with her life, her love and her children. She was one of us—an important part of us—integral to the foundation of this place. She knew its people, its politics and its promise as a place of great possibilities, and she was proud to be a Cantabrigian and we proudly acknowledge her as such; and
- WHEREAS: To the family we acknowledge your loss and we say that not having her here as a part of Cambridge means that Cambridge will never be the same place; and
- WHEREAS: Marion was the devoted mother of Roy Anthony "Tony" Nunes, Roberta and Judith Nunes, Jacqueline Grimble and Rose Marie Pendleton; and

WHEREAS: Marian was the beloved sister of William Jr. and Roland Daly; and

WHEREAS: Marian is also survived by fourteen grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Mayor and the City Council of the City of Cambridge go on record extending its deepest sympathy to the family of Marian Kathleen Agnew and acknowledge the great loss to the City of Cambridge.
