

City of Cambridge

IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor William H. Walsh

January 9, 1989

- WHEREAS: Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter once remarked that, " In this country, the highest office is citizen " ; and
- WHEREAS: All too often, having been born as citizens of the United States, we tend to take for granted the tremendous rights and responsibilities which United States citizenship carries with it; and
- WHEREAS: That complacency is challenged when we listen to persons from other countries as they tell why they not only want citizenship but are willing to work long and hard for that day on which they will raise their right hand and swear allegiance to the United States; and
- WHEREAS: One such person who will complete his journey to U.S. citizenship is Michael Haskovec of 26 Maple Avenue, Cambridge when, on January 27, 1989, he will be sworn in as a citizen of the United States; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council congratulates and bids welcome to Michael Haskovec as a United States citizen; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and is requested to prepare a duly engrossed copy of this Resolution for presentation to Michael Haskovec as a permanent reminder of the day on which the office of citizen became part of his life.
