WHEREAS: It has come to the attention of the Cambridge City Council that John O'Brien, CEO and President of UMass Memorial Healthcare, Inc. is the 2006 recipient of the Massachusetts Public Health Association's Paul Revere Award; and

WHEREAS: From 1986 to 2002, John O'Brien led the Cambridge Hospital's transformation into Cambridge Health Alliance, our premier academic public health care system; and

WHEREAS: In both Cambridge and Worcester, John has demonstrated how to promote individual, family and community health by integrating clinical medical care with population-based services to prevent injury and disease, and how to direct limited resources effectively to meet the needs of diverse populations; and

WHEREAS: The Massachusetts Public Health Association (MPHA) is a private non-profit statewide membership organization that advances public health and social justice through advocacy, education, community organizing and coalition leadership; and

WHEREAS: The Paul Revere Award is MPHA's highest honor and is reserved for public health leaders who have developed and promoted strong public health programs resulting in an outstanding positive impact on community health; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record congratulating John O'Brien, CEO & President of UMass Memorial Healthcare, Inc., and former CEO of the Cambridge Health Alliance, on his being honored by the Massachusetts Public Health Association 4th Annual Celebration and Awards Dinner on April 27, 2006 at the Boston Park Plaza Hotel; and be it further
