In Board of Aldermen
Sept. 28th. 1870

The Joint Standing Committee on Roads & Bridges who were directed by a recent Order of the City Council to examine the condition of the westerly portion of Dublin St. & of other streets in the immediate vicinity & report whether or not it is expedient to put said streets in better condition than they now are, — would respectfully

Report,

That they have examined the locality referred to in the order, & find ~~that~~ all the accepted streets in the vicinity now under orders for improvement.

That while the private streets are not in the best condition for travel, none of them are dangerous;—therefore your committee judge it inexpedient for the City Council to take further action in the premises.

For the Committee

James M. Sparrow
