Mr. Kenneth Reeves, Mayor
Members of the Cambridge City Council
City Clerk

Alice Wolf

Dear Supporters of the annual BREAD AND JUSTICE CAMPAIGN:

I am writing to ask the support of the Cambridge City Council for the ongoing work of the Cambridge Food Pantry Network. The Cambridge Food Pantry Network (CFPN) now consists of twelve nonprofit community organizations who depend on volunteers and donations for survival. We provide over 1,500 households with three days supply of food each month. More than 4,000 persons are served each month through our food salvage programs and our pantries located in churches, community organizations, a senior center and the Cambridge City Hospital.

Hungry people in Cambridge are primarily women with young children and elders. Nearly 50% of all people served are children.

Your past support has helped our network of programs work together to address problems and issues of poverty, waste and food distribution.

How can the city council assist us?

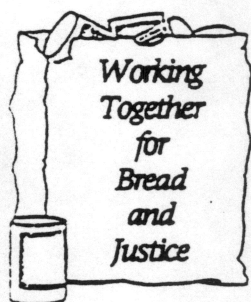

- ++ By publicizing our annual Bread and Justice Food and Resource Drive which is conducted from November 15 - December 31.
- Help us distribute our flyers to businesses throughout the city through your contacts with the business community;
 - Sponsor the annual city hall food drive, which in past years has greatly helped fill our food pantries;
 - Publicize city council orders, use lawn signs, encourage city employees to participate in our efforts;
 - Publicize our food and resource drive and/or our ongoing effort through the use of flyers in mailings to residents, along with tax bills and the like,
 - Continue to support the goals of the 1991 HUNGER REFERENDUM, goals which bring about real change.

The members of the Cambridge Food Pantry Network (list attached) are prepared to work with you in whatever way possible to continue our successful effort to end hunger in Cambridge.

Sincerely,

Gerald Bergman
