

City of Cambridge

39.

IN CITY COUNCIL

August 3, 1992

COUNCILLOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR WALSH
MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: On August 18, 1992 at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center and on September 3, 1992 at the Somerville Public Library, the Somerville - Cambridge Elder Services, Inc. will host an intergenerational art exhibit in honor of their 20th Anniversary; and

WHEREAS: This exhibit entitled "Open your Art: Agelessness in Creativity" is sponsored by SCES and the Stride Rite Intergenerational Day Care Center and represents the efforts of children under six and elders over sixty who attend the Center; and

WHEREAS: This exhibit honors the ongoing commitment to elders and intergenerational programming by both of these fine organizations and will display projects that reflect the ethnic and generational qualities of the elders and children who made them; and

WHEREAS: The artwork in the exhibit ranges from a totem pole depicting various languages and cultures to a series of decorated sneakers, hand-colored photographic portraits, sand paintings, block prints, T-shirts and cut-out paper constructions; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record extending its heartiest congratulations and Best Wishes to Somerville - Cambridge Elder Services, Inc., The Stride Rite Intergenerational Day Care Center and to all who participated in this exhibit; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Temporary City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to Mr. John O'Neill, Administrator on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council August 3, 1992.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, Temporary City Clerk.

D. Margaret Drury

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury
Temporary City Clerk

Consent

August 3, 1992

Councillor Russell

Whereas : On August 18, 1992 at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center and on September 3, 1992 at the Somerville Public Library the Somerville - Cambridge Elder Services, Inc. will host an intergenerational art exhibit in honor of their 20th Anniversary; and

Whereas : This exhibit entitled, "Open Your Art: Ageless new in Creativity" is sponsored by SCEI and the Stride Rite Intergenerational Day Care Center and represents the efforts of children under six and elders over 60 who attend the Center; and

Whereas : This exhibit honors the ongoing commitment to elders and intergenerational programming by both of these fine organizations and will display projects that reflect the ethnic and generational qualities of the elders and children who made them; and

Whereas : The artwork in the exhibit ranges from a totem pole depicting various languages and cultures to a series of decorated sneakers also included is hand-colored photographic portraits, sand paintings, black prints, T-shirts and cut-out paper constructions; now therefore be it

Resolved : That this City Council go on record

extending its heartiest Congratulations and Best Wishes to Sonoma-Cambridge
Elder Services, Inc., The Stride Rite
Intergenerational Day Care Center
and to all who participated in this exhibit; and be it further

Resolved : That the Temporary City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to
Mr. John O'Neill, Administrator on behalf of the entire City Council.

SOMERVILLE-CAMBRIDGE
ELDER SERVICES, INC.

C
39

July 22, 1992

Dear Colleague:

Somerville-Cambridge Elder Services is pleased to invite you to attend the opening of an intergenerational art exhibit in honor of our 20th Anniversary. You are invited to join us at one of two public receptions to be held in Cambridge and Somerville. The first will be at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center, 41 Second Street, on August 18 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The second will be at the Somerville Public Library, 79 Highland Avenue, on September 3 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

The exhibit, "Open Your Art: Agelessness in Creativity," is sponsored by SCES and the Stride Rite Intergenerational Day Care Center. It represents the efforts of children under six and elders over 60 who attend the Center, and honors the ongoing commitment to elders and intergenerational programming by SCES and Stride Rite. As you may know, SCES staff consulted on the development of the Elder Program at the Stride Rite Intergenerational Center, and received the Administration on Aging's Community Achievement Award for this collaboration.

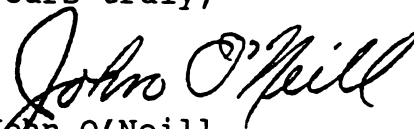

The artwork in the exhibit ranges from a totem pole depicting various languages and cultures to a series of decorated sneakers. The works include hand-colored photographic portraits, sand paintings, block prints, T-shirts, and cut-out paper constructions. All of the projects reflect the ethnic and generational qualities of the elders and children who made them.

The exhibit will open at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center on August 13 and will be on display there through August 31. Admission is free; the hours are 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. The public reception will be held on Tuesday, August 18 from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

From September 3 through 23, the exhibit will be on display at the Somerville Public Library. Admission is free; the hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Friday. A public reception will be held on Thursday, September 3 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Somerville-Cambridge Elder Services is pleased to be able to share this exhibit with you before it is combined with other works in preparation for an exhibition at the Capital Children's Museum in Washington, D.C. We hope you will join us in viewing this wonderful celebration of the creativity of young and old alike, and the twenty years of service Somerville-Cambridge Elder Services has provided to our community.

Yours truly,

John O'Neill
Administrator

City of Cambridge

39.

IN CITY COUNCIL

August 3, 1992

COUNCILLOR RUSSELL

WHEREAS: On August 18, 1992 at the Cambridge Multicultural Arts Center and on September 3, 1992 at the Somerville Public Library, the Somerville - Cambridge Elder Services, Inc. will host an intergenerational art exhibit in honor of their 20th Anniversary; and

WHEREAS: This exhibit entitled "Open your Art: Agelessness in Creativity" is sponsored by SCES and the Stride Rite Intergenerational Day Care Center and represents the efforts of children under six and elders over sixty who attend the Center; and

WHEREAS: This exhibit honors the ongoing commitment to elders and intergenerational programming by both of these fine organizations and will display projects that reflect the ethnic and generational qualities of the elders and children who made them; and

WHEREAS: The artwork in the exhibit ranges from a totem pole depicting various languages and cultures to a series of decorated sneakers, hand-colored photographic portraits, sand paintings, block prints, T-shirts and cut-out paper constructions; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record extending its heartiest congratulations and Best Wishes to Somerville - Cambridge Elder Services, Inc., The Stride Rite Intergenerational Day Care Center and to all who participated in this exhibit; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the Temporary City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to Mr. John O'Neill, Administrator on behalf of the entire City Council.

CONSENT ORDER #39

S-568
Bluejay, Joomey, Walsh, M. Reeves
Councillor Russell re: 20th Anniversary of the Somerville/Cambridge Elder Services.

In City Council,

August 3, 1992

Order adopted