

RECEIVED BY
OFFICE OF CITY CLERK

Cambridge, July 20 1990

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

CAMBRIDGE MA.

The undersigned respectfully pray that I may be granted permission to read palms in Harvard Square on an irregular and infrequent schedule. I have been reading professionally since age 15, and have had many very satisfied customers and a strong reputation in my area, as well as at Bennington College, the school which I currently attend.

I charge reasonable rates, with discounts for children & Senior citizens, and in general have a very fair practice and am willing to adjust my rates if enough customers find the prices steep. (In fairs and parties previously I have charged $3 to $5, and plan to charge $5 to $8 a reading in Harvard Square). I ~~do~~ have always been considered an asset to any street fair I have participated in, and have never disrupted the peace in any way (in and not in conjunction with my practice).

I respectfully pray to be granted a license to read publicly in Harvard Square for the remainder of the summer, perhaps one or two days per week - and on occasion for the rest of the year (I am not sure of my schedule beyond this point, but would like to continue in the future.) I have provided references:

- Maria Lauenstein + Sonam Denjongpa - (508) 922-7833
- Susan Hamilton - 6 Bridge St, Manchester, MA (can provide #)

(I am willing to give sample readings).

Thank you for your consideration. Sincerely, Sarah Noack
