Dear Tomás,

w/A:

We are proud to announce that the Community Learning Center has been selected to receive one of ten awards from the United States Secretary of Education for Outstanding Adult Education and Literacy Programs. This award is based on the program's design, instruction, learning environment, achievement of learner goals, standards, evaluation, and professional development. Each state was allowed to nominate two programs. The 17 semi-finalists were visited by representatives of the US Department of Education, who spent two days interviewing staff and students and examining documents. We will have an award ceremony in Cambridge, probably in early February, and hope that you can participate in it.

Thank you for contributions to the CLC. Community support is vital to the success of our program.

Sincerely,

Mina

Dear Henrietta,

Right after we sent out the publicity/solicitation letters (thanks for your contribution - you were the first politico to do so!), we got word of this award. Great, huh?

You'll get an invitation to an open house/celebration on March 6 (9:30 at the CLC, then 10:30 at the Senior Center). We're hoping to get Kennedy or Kerry.
