the City Council hereby inform that, the Cambridge legislative delegation that a new police station in Cambridge is of the highest priority, that state aid is a crucial factor in its building, and that ~~the City Council~~ they ~~are~~ <sup>are</sup> requested to support and gain passage of <sup>pending</sup> legislation that would provide financial assistance to communities ~~to~~ which are construct<sup>ing</sup> police stations.

October 21, 1996

To The Honorable, The City Council:

I am hereby requesting the appropriation of $4,674.00 in the General Fund of the Executive Department's Other Ordinary Maintenance Account from tee-shirts sales. These funds will be used to pay for the State Police detail for the 150th Parade and for a portion of the cost of tee-shirts.

Very truly yours,

Robert W. Healy
City Manager
