VICE MAYOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DAVIS
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: Lesley College has announce an extensive array of new financial aid opportunities that will make a college education more attainable for future Cambridge Rindge and Latin graduates, their parents, and every employee of the City; and

WHEREAS: Lesley College will present a $5,000 scholarship to each 1997 graduate of Cambridge Rindge and Latin whose academic performance meets the standards of Lesley College admissions; and

WHEREAS: This $5,000 scholarship is available not only to the Class of 1997, but also to all future Cambridge Rindge and Latin graduates; and

WHEREAS: Lesley has implemented the following innovative financial aid opportunities:

- A tuition reduction of ten percent for any Cambridge resident entering our Adult Baccalaureate College; and
- The continuation of Lesley's full tuition scholarship program for ten minority students every year, with preference given to graduates of Cambridge and Boston high schools; and
- An expansion of Lesley's ten percent tuition reduction for Cambridge Teachers. In addition, all City of Cambridge employees entering any Lesley College program will receive this same reduction; and

WHEREAS: Currently, all 36 Cambridge residents attending Lesley College receive financial aid; six receive full tuition scholarships; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the entire City Council commend Lesley College and Superintendent Mary Lou McGrath and the School Committee on creating this unique and innovative opportunity which will ultimately benefit not only our students and employees, but also our entire Cambridge community. This is truly an educational town/gown relationship at its best.
