CHAPTER 1

THE CONSTITUTION

The Constitution is the supreme law of the United States. It is the framework for the government and the rights of the people. The Constitution is divided into seven articles. Article I establishes the legislative branch, the United States Congress. Article II establishes the executive branch, the President. Article III establishes the judicial branch, the Supreme Court. Article IV deals with the states and the federal government. Article V deals with the process of amending the Constitution. Article VI deals with the supremacy of the Constitution. Article VII deals with the ratification of the Constitution.

The Constitution is a living document that has been amended many times. The amendments are numbered 1 through 27. The Bill of Rights, the first ten amendments, protect the rights of the people. The 13th, 14th, and 15th amendments deal with slavery and civil rights. The 17th, 19th, 20th, 21st, and 22nd amendments deal with the election of the President and the Vice President. The 23rd, 24th, and 25th amendments deal with the states and the President. The 26th amendment deals with the voting age.
