- WHEREAS: Cambridge has many essential human resources and chief among them are its grandparents and great grandparents; and
- WHEREAS: By their unique and irreplaceable relationship with grandchildren, grandparents remain an important source of knowledge and stability within families; and
- WHEREAS: At a time when the traditional family structure is rapidly changing and as social and economic pressures threaten families, grandparents are playing vital roles in connecting generations and strengthening familial bonds; and
- WHEREAS: These families represent all socioeconomic, racial and ethnic backgrounds; and
- WHEREAS: A significant number of grandparents provide numerous hours of daily childcare for their grandchildren and increasingly, grandparents are taking on the responsibility of raising their grandchildren; and
- WHEREAS: These grandparents embrace the challenges of caring for a new generation of young people; and
- WHEREAS: Grandparents give children their unconditional love, guidance, understanding and wisdom. These everyday unsung heroes deserve our gratitude, respect and admiration; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the City of Cambridge acknowledges
