To the members of the Cambridge City Council:

As a fifteen-year Cambridge resident, I urge your support of a no-compromise rent control policy in favor of tenants. The passage of a bill decontrolling vacant apartments kills the very principle of rent control.

Callousness, cynicism and political manipulation have characterized the treatment of tenants on this issue. It is time that tenants be given a "bill of rights" guaranteeing them some basic human rights. I shall work actively to support any Cambridge political figure who champions rent control, and to oppose any person's re-election who votes for a compromise measure. Up until now, all "compromises" have favored the landlords.

Sincerely,

M. Wechsler
