In Board of Aldermen,
November 27th, 1900.

Resolved: That the public necessity and convenience require that Dudley street should be extended and laid out at the width of forty (40) feet between Cedar street and Clifton street, and that for the purpose of such extension and laying out it is necessary to take certain strips of private land bounded and described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the northerly line of Dudley street, at its intersection with the easterly line of Clifton street; thence running easterly along said northerly line, fourteen hundred and thirty and five tenths (1430.5) feet to its intersection with the westerly line of Cedar street; thence southerly along said westerly line, forty (40) feet to its intersection with the southerly line of Dudley street; thence westerly along said southerly line parallel to and forty (40) feet distant southerly from the northerly line of Dudley street, fourteen hundred and thirty (1430) feet to its intersection with the easterly line of Clifton street; thence northerly along said easterly line, forty (40) feet to its intersection with the northerly line of Dudley street at the point of beginning. Containing fifty-seven thousand two hundred and ten (57,210) square feet, more or less.

The above described parcel of land is shown on a plan entitled "Plan of Dudley street for Acceptance," drawn by L. M. Hastings, City Engineer, dated November 22, 1900, and on file in the office of the City Engineer of Cambridge, Mass.

It is therefore

Ordered: That due notice be given to the owners of land abutting on said Dudley street, between the points before mentioned, and all other persons interested, by a delivery of a copy of this order of notice in the manner prescribed by law, and by publication in the newspaper called the Cambridge Press, that this Board intends to extend and lay out said Dudley street to the width of forty (40) feet, by taking a portion of their land and laying out the same as a public street, and that Tuesday, the 18th day of December next, at 8.30 o'clock P. M., and the Aldermanic Chamber, City Hall, are assigned as the time and place for hearing any objections which may be made thereto.

Adopted.
