As for how the dinner-for-25 bill was paid, Healy noted that cash didn't come out of Reeves' wallet. Instead, the mayor's ceremonial function account -- in other words the city -- paid the way.

RICHARD C. ROSSI
Deputy City Manager

To The Honorable, The City Council:

Enclosed please find a report from Jill Herold, Assistant City Manager for Human Services, regarding funding of meal and food pantry programs. Current budget constraints indicate that the capacity to increase funding for the many worthy human service requests that come before me has been reached. I am, therefore, not recommending additional funding for the CEOC Food Pantry Network at this time....

Very truly yours,

Robert W. Healy
City Manager
