

City of Cambridge

24.

IN CITY COUNCIL

March 12, 1990

MAYOR WOLF

- WHEREAS: In past years to reflect on the contribution and struggle of women in history, politics, sciences, and the arts, International Women's Day was celebrated in March; and
- WHEREAS: The contribution of women in this country is considerable, and, significantly, Women's Day was founded out of protest of the inhumane conditions of women forced to work in the factory, the farm, and other workplaces; and
- WHEREAS: In 1990, inequalities still exist and women all over the world continue to fight for political, social, and economic equality in the home, the workplace, and the voting booth; therefore, be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council here recognizes the continued struggle and the immense contribution of women in Cambridge and around the world by encouraging all Cambridge to celebrate and reflect on International Women's Day and Women's History Month; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That the City Clerk is hereby requested to prepare an engrossed copy of this resolution to be presented in honor of the women of Cambridge to the Women's Commission in celebration of Women's History Month March, 1990.

In City Council March 12, 1990.
 Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
