By JULIANNE HASTINGS

PHOENIX — When CBS launched its 1983-84 prime-time season last fall with three movie nights, CBS Entertainment President B. Donald Grant predicted the end of the traditional fall season.

That was last year.

This fall CBS will offer five nights of series, probably beginning the week of Sept. 24.

What a difference a year makes.

Asked about some of last season's failure's, Grant said Susanne Pleshette would definitely be back on CBS at some point in the future.

"We don't think that we did really a very good job — and when I say we I mean CBS and [producers] Lorimar — on properly presenting Suzanne Pleshette," Grant said.

"We think she is a very attractive, very popular, very capable

Suzanne Pleshette . . . back on CBS soon.

"And what we and Lorimar have agreed to do is to either redevelop the 'Maggie Briggs' show in a slightly different form or a new show for Suzanne Pleshette in the future.

"So 'Maggie Briggs' may not be alive, but Suzanne Pleshette is."

Grant's personal biggest disappointment

with new shows last season that did not survive was "Emerald Point, N.A.S.," starring Dennis Weaver and written by the creators of "Dynasty."

"I thought 'Emerald Point' was going to work. I really did," Grant said.

"I think it didn't work in retrospect because of the background. I think that the military or naval background was too limiting to be broadly identified by the general public."

As for the upcoming season, Grant said he is most worried about Wednesday night, when CBS's greatest competition is the ABC lineup of "The Fall Guy," "Dynasty" and "Hotel."

The CBS lineup will include two new youth-oriented shows, "Charles in Charge," a sitcom starring teen idol Scot Baio, and "Dreams," a video-music drama starring teen idol John Stamos, followed by a movie.

"We would like to show some improvement on Wednesday night," Grant said. "I think we'll probably do well on Thursday and Friday night. I think we have a chance of winning Saturday night, Sunday night and Monday night."

"We will not win Tuesday or Wednesday."

Tuesday night has CBS's struggling "AfterMASH," the new sitcom "E.R.," starring Elliott Gould, and a movie against NBC's top-rated "The A-Team," "Riptide" and "Remington Steele."

Sorry Mr. Gould. Sorry Mr. Baio. You heard what Mr. Grant said. —UPI

WBZ nixes network's summer news show

By JIM BAKER
HOLLYWOOD — How's Larry Grossman, the former PBS chief, doing in his early days as NBC News boss since making network TV's most dramatic job switch of the year?

Well, WBZ is among three top-10 affiliates that Grossman's been unable to talk into carrying "Summer Sunday, USA," an experimental nine-week effort that's being tossed opposite "60 Minutes" July 1.

And in introducing Linda Ellerbee, who'll co-anchor with Andrea Mitchell, he labeled her "a very old friend of NBC News."

If it weren't for the new deluxe contract Ellerbee just signed, she might have responded by uncorking an uppercut to the chops! Old friend, indeed.

But if not tactful, Grossman was at least refreshingly honest along several fronts:

● On an hour NBC newscast: "We have an exploding news climate on TV now, with a local news hour or two preceding us. I'm not sure we're ready, or the nation needs, a prime-time news hour."

● On distrust of the media: "Sometimes there's a sense of arrogance about the news. . . . We should not use the First Amendment to hide behind our own inadequacies."

● On election night projections: "When we know in a responsible way there's something significant to report, we have an obligation to report it. I have no problem with substance, but with the style in which it's sometimes reported."

● On NBC News morale: "The further you get from New York, the more gung-ho [NBC personnel] are." Of course, what does that say about those around Rockefeller Center?

Ellerbee, best known as co-anchor of long-gone "NBC News Overnight," got in some good cracks:

● "There's a lot of arrogance in this business. We've talked down to the audience for years."

● "I look at 'Summer Sunday' this way: It's the first time we've had two brunettes together on national TV. . . . If he [Grossman] were putting on a show to exploit women, he wouldn't have picked Andrea Mitchell and me."

● "In going around asking what's wrong with NBC News, Larry asked, 'Why aren't there any women running things?' My response was, 'I'm glad somebody asked.'"

SHORT TAKES — Norman Lear says his "a.k.a. Pablo" never had a chance because "the networks are obsessed with winning in the short term. We knew six weeks would not do it. That's why we haven't seen a biting comedy in several years."

Bill Cosby's new family sitcom to land with NBC's fall season will be a pleasant surprise for those turned off by his "Tonight" stints. It's packed with laughs and is among the most popular newcomers to be previewed here.

Ellerbee says she doesn't mind being a "test pilot" for new shows. But when one goes poof, she has this reaction: "Was it something I said? In my case, the answer is probably yes."

Big three battle it out in repeat season

NEW YORK — CBS edged out NBC in the prime time network ratings last week as the repeat season was in full swing with 50 reruns out of the 65 rated shows.

The A.C. Nielsen prime time ratings for the week ending June 10 gave CBS a 12.4 rating and a 23 percent share of the viewing audience. NBC tied BS in the share of audience, but scored slightly lower in the ratings with a 12.3. ABC was at the bottom with an 11.1 rating and a 21 percent share.

Among the top ten shows, only three were not repeats — "60 Minutes" on CBS and ABC's "20-20" and Wednesday movie, "Moment By Moment."

The Top 10 prime time shows for the week ending June 10, according to the A.C. Nielsen Co., were:

1. Simon & Simon (CBS)
2. Trapper John, M.D. (CBS)
3. NBC Monday Night Movie (Born To Be Sold)
4. 60 Minutes (CBS)
5. Alice (CBS)
6. 20-20 (ABC)
7. 8. (tie) Magnum, P.I. (CBS) and NBC Sunday Night Movie (Joe Dancer)
9. 10. (tie) The A-Team (NBC) and ABC Wednesday Night Movie (Moment By Moment)

Margaret DeRoche

A FUNERAL Mass for Margaret "Peg" (Ryan) DeRoche, 71, of Hyde Park, a grandmother of 11 and step-grandmother of 15, will be celebrated at 9 a.m. today in Most Precious Blood Church, Hyde Park.

She died Sunday at Carney Hospital, Dorchester, following a brief illness.

Born in Ireland, she came to the United States as a girl and settled with her family in Hyde Park, where she lived until her death.

She was a member of various area Irish social clubs.

DeRoche is survived by her husband, Joseph DeRoche, of Hyde Park. She had two previous husbands, the late Daniel Doyle and the late Maurice O'Shea. Other survivors include two sons, Daniel T. Doyle of Delaware and John E. Doyle of Florida; and a daughter, Mary Vigue of Hyde Park.

She is also survived by three stepsons, Robert O'Shea of Norton, Richard DeRoche of Martha's Vineyard and Larry DeRoche of Pembroke; and three stepdaughters, Noreen Menconi of Raynham, Margaret O'Shea of West Roxbury and Sheryl Gallagher of Roslindale.

In addition, DeRoche is survived by two brothers, Garrett Ryan of Hyde Park and Patrick Ryan of Ireland; a sister, Mary Smyth of Ireland; and many nieces and nephews.

James Nelson

A FUNERAL service for James Nelson, 81, of Wakefield, a retired deputy regional director of the U.S. Department of Labor, will be held at 11 a.m. today at the McDonald Funeral Home in Wakefield.

He died Monday at the Melrose-Wakefield Hospital following a long illness.

Born in Liverpool, England, Nelson came to the United States as a boy and graduated from Northeastern University.

Active in the American Federation of Labor in the 1930s and 40s, he was co-founder and first president of United Mine Workers District 50.

Nelson was deputy regional director of the wage hour and public contracts division of the Department of Labor's New England region. He retired in 1969.

A Wakefield resident of over 60 years, he was a member of the town's personnel board, the First Parish Congregational Church in Wakefield, the Retired Men's Club in Wakefield, and the Mt. Vernon Masonic Lodge in Malden.

Nelson is survived by his wife, Christine (Cheney) Nelson of Wakefield; a daughter, Pamela C. Myrus of Watertown, N.Y.; a brother, Nell Nelson of Manchester, N.H.; two sisters, Isabelle Richard of Wakefield and Dorothy Nelson of Florida; and one grandchild.

CBS goes for series in fall

By JULIANNE HASTINGS

PHOENIX — When CBS launched its 1983-84 prime-time season last fall with three movie nights, CBS Entertainment President B. Donald Grant predicted the end of the traditional fall season.

That was last year. This fall CBS will offer five nights of series, probably beginning the week of Sept. 24.

What a difference a year makes.

Asked about some of last season's failure's, Grant said Susanne Pleshette would definitely be back on CBS at some point in the future.

"We don't think that we did really a very good job — and when I say we I mean CBS and [producers] Lorimar — on properly presenting Suzanne Pleshette," Grant said.

"We think she is a very attractive, very popular, very capable television actress. "And what we and Lorimar have agreed to do is to either redevelop the 'Maggie Briggs' show in a slightly different form or a new show for Suzanne Pleshette in the future.

Suzanne Pleshette . . . back on CBS soon.

"So 'Maggie Briggs' may not be alive, but Suzanne Pleshette is." Grant's personal biggest disappointment with new shows last season that did not survive was "Emerald Point, N.A.S.," starring Dennis Weaver and written by the creators of "Dynasty."

"I thought 'Emerald Point' was going to work. I really did," Grant said.

"I think it didn't work in retrospect because of the background. I think that the military or naval background was too limiting to be broadly identified by the general public."

As for the upcoming season, Grant said he is most worried about Wednesday night, when CBS's greatest competition is the ABC lineup of "The Fall Guy," "Dynasty" and "Hotel."

The CBS lineup will include two new youth-oriented shows, "Charles in Charge," a sitcom starring teen idol Scot Baio, and "Dreams," a video-music drama starring teen idol John Stamos, followed by a movie.

"We would like to show some improvement on Wednesday night," Grant said. "I think we'll probably do well on Thursday and Friday night. I think we have a chance of winning Saturday night, Sunday night and Monday night."

"We will not win Tuesday or Wednesday."

Tuesday night has CBS's struggling "AfterMASH," the new sitcom "E.R.," starring Elliott Gould, and a movie against NBC's top-rated "The A-Team," "Riptide" and "Remington Steele."

Sorry Mr. Gould. Sorry Mr. Baio. You heard what Mr. Grant said. —UPI

WBZ nixes network's summer news show

By JIM BAKER
HOLLYWOOD — How's Larry Grossman, the former PBS chief, doing in his early days as NBC News boss since making network TV's most dramatic job switch of the year?

Well, WBZ is among three top-10 affiliates that Grossman's been unable to talk into carrying "Summer Sunday, USA," an experimental nine-week effort that's being tossed opposite "60 Minutes" July 1.

And in introducing Linda Ellerbee, who'll co-anchor with Andrea Mitchell, he labeled her "a very old friend of NBC News."

If it weren't for the new deluxe contract Ellerbee just signed, she might have responded by uncorking an uppercut to the chops! Old friend, indeed.

But if not tactful, Grossman was at least refreshingly honest along several fronts:

● On an hour NBC newscast: "We have an exploding news cli-

● On distrust of the media: "Sometimes there's a sense of arrogance about the news. . . . We should not use the First Amendment to hide behind our own inadequacies."

● On election night projections: "When we know in a responsible way there's something significant to report, we have an obligation to report it. I have no problem with substance, but with the style in which it's sometimes reported."

● On NBC News morale: "The further you get from New York, the more gung-ho [NBC personnel] are." Of course, what does that say about those around Rockefeller Center?

Ellerbee, best known as co-anchor of long-gone "NBC News Overnight," got in some good cracks:

● "There's a lot of arrogance in this business. We've talked down to the audience for years."

● "I look at 'Summer Sunday' this way: It's the first time we've had two brunettes together on national TV. . . . If he [Grossman] were putting on a show to exploit women, he wouldn't have picked Andrea Mitchell and me."

● "In going around asking what's wrong with NBC News, Larry asked, 'Why aren't there any women running things?' My response was, 'I'm glad somebody asked.'"

SHORT TAKES — Norman Lear says his "a.k.a. Pablo" never had a chance because "the networks are obsessed with winning in the short term. We knew six weeks would not do it. That's why we haven't seen a biting comedy in several years."

Bill Cosby's new family sitcom to land with NBC's fall season will be a pleasant surprise for those turned off by his "Tonight" stints. It's packed with laughs and is among the most popular newcomers to be previewed here.

Ellerbee says she doesn't mind being a "test pilot" for new shows. But when one goes poof, she has this reaction: "Was it something I said? In my case, the answer is probably yes."

Big three battle it out in repeat season

NEW YORK — CBS edged out NBC in the prime time network ratings last week as the repeat season was in full swing with 50 reruns out of the 65 rated shows.

The A.C. Nielsen prime time ratings for the week ending June 10 gave CBS a 12.4 rating and a 23 percent share of the viewing audience. NBC tied BS in the share of audience, but scored slightly lower in the ratings with a 12.3. ABC was at the bottom with an 11.1 rating and a 21 percent share.

Among the top ten shows, only three were not repeats — "60 Minutes" on CBS and ABC's "20-20" and Wednesday movie, "Moment By Moment."

The Top 10 prime time shows for the week ending June 10, according to the A.C. Nielsen Co., were:

1. Simon & Simon (CBS)

2. Trapper John, M.D. (CBS)
3. NBC Monday Night Movie (Born To Be Sold)
4. 60 Minutes (CBS)
5. Alice (CBS)
6. 20-20 (ABC)
7. 8. (tie) Magnum, P.I. (CBS) and NBC Sunday Night Movie (Joe Dancer)
9. 10. (tie) The A-Team (NBC) and ABC Wednesday Night Movie (Moment By Moment)
