The Cambridge City Council:

As is my right under the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and Chapter 43 section 98 of the Massachusetts General laws and Rule 23 of the City Council's Rules, I demand to be heard at the regular Monday City Council meeting on the matter of

1. the false statements made by Deputy City Solicitor Donald Drisdell regarding the City Manager's response to my demands for a public hearing in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 30A of the Massachusetts laws on the matter revoking Continental Cablevision's privileges to operate the City of Cambridge's Cable T.V. system and suspending the payments of the cable subscribers money to Cambridge Community Televisions employees, officers and board members, and
2. the misinformation submitted to the City Council by the city manager regarding his public hearing scheduled for Wednesday December 9, 1992 regarding the city's alleged license with Continental Cablevision with full knowledge that no valid license between Continental Cablevision and the city has existed since February 25, 1988 signed by the city manager and Continental Cablevision's lawful representative, a copy of the City manager's November 9, 1992 notice is attached, and
3. the action against the Mayor by the city council for interference with my right to be heard on matters #2 & #3 of my October 22, 1992 Communication, attached

To the Honorable, the City Council:

In response to Awaiting Report #18 regarding Continental Cablevision's policy on senior citizen discounts, please be advised of the following:

On Wednesday, December 9, 1992 I will hold a public hearing, pursuant to the Final License section 14.13(c), to discuss several issues regarding the City's license with Continental Cablevision. The agenda for the hearing includes discussion of: cable guides and subscriber charges for the service; Cablevision's policy on senior citizen discounts; Cablevision's policy on remote controls; and the status of money/equipment to the Schools and the Police Department. This hearing will take place in the Sullivan Chamber at 5:30 p.m.

Very truly yours,

Robert W. Healy
City Manager

The Members of the Cambridge City Council:

As is my right under the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and Chapter 43 section 98 of the Massachusetts General laws and Rule 23 of the Cambridge City Council Rules and the provisions of Chapter 30A of the Massachusetts General laws, I demand to be heard for ten (10) minutes on each of the following matters:

1. The resignation of City Councillor William Walsh as Chair of the City Council's Cable TV and Communications Committee which he has held and now holds in violation of Rule 14 of the City Council's Rules and the costs and consequences should Councillor Walsh refuse to resign or should the Mayor refuse to revoke Councillor Walsh's appointment to the position.

2. The costs and consequences should the City Council fail and refuse to inquire, in accordance with section 107 of Chapter 43 of the General laws, of their employee Robert Healy, Issuing Authority for Cable TV licenses as to the reasons for his intentional delay in responding to the ⁽¹⁾ September 14, 1992 request for a report by Councillor's Walsh Dechay, Russell & Toomey RE Continental Cablevision's policy on senior citizen discounts (2) the policy of Continental Cablevision's local management's policy of charging Cambridge subscribers for rental of remote units (3) the Complaints of various citizens including me against Continental Cablevision for repeated violations of the City's original license with Continental Cablevision's limited partner American.

3. The costs and consequences (a) should the City Council fail and refuse to (1) allow me equal time to rebutt the Phillip Sussler report, the Roseline Niles opinion and the Erwin Hipsman Communication and (2) vote that I receive a check from the City for $666 x 6 and (b) should the city manager continue to refuse to retain my services under contract to enforce the Cable TV license and continue to refuse to direct Continental to stop payments to CCTV
