

City of Cambridge

12.

IN CITY COUNCIL

November 2, 1992

MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: America is the Nation of Immigrants, and here in Cambridge, we are diverse like the nation; and

WHEREAS: On November 16, 1776 the Dutch port of St. Eustatius saluted the then fledgling flag of the United States, a courageous move that recognized American independence from Great Britain in the eyes of other nations; and

WHEREAS: Since then, the friendship between the United States and the Netherlands has continued to strengthen, and America became home to millions of Dutch-Americans; and

WHEREAS: The customs and traditions of Dutch-Americans have enriched our nation, and three presidents, Martin Van Buren, Theodore Roosevelt and Franklin D. Roosevelt came from Dutch stock; and

WHEREAS: Here in Cambridge, our city is home to thousands of Americans of Dutch descent, their heritage being a lively part of Cambridge's cultural life; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council proclaims November 16, 1992 as DUTCH-AMERICAN HERITAGE DAY and do urge all residents to observe this very important day in our city.

In City Council November 2, 1992.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
