IN CITY COUNCIL

March 21, 1983

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

ORDERED: That it is the policy of this City Council relative to the granting of permits for the passage of motor vehicle carriers through the City, that the permit is to be contingent upon the City Council being properly notified in advance of any change in the original conditions of said permit; and be it further

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to instruct the License Commission to take the appropriate steps to provide the City Council at the beginning of each calendar year a report of the operations of each carrier, including the number of trips made, indicating origin and destination, the number of passengers carried on each trip, as well as the total number for each preceding year; and be it further ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to confer with the City Solicitor as to the feasibility and legality of an annual fee being established for the issuance of said permits.

In City Council March 21, 1983.
