Mr. Anthony G. Paolillo
Chief of Police
Cambridge Police Department
5 Western Avenue
Cambridge, Massachusetts 02139

Dear Chief Paolillo:

Detective John Conroy of your Department greatly assisted the BOSLUC Task Force in an investigation which ultimately resulted in the apprehension of "Top Ten" fugitives Raymond Luc Levasseur and Thomas W. Manning and their associates, and I want to thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

My colleagues and I are grateful for the fine working relationship that exists between your Department and the Bureau, and we look forward to working with you and your officers in the future.

I have enclosed a separate letter of appreciation to Detective Conroy, and I would appreciate your presenting it to him for me. A copy is also enclosed for your information.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster
Director

Mr. John Conroy
Detective
Cambridge Police Department
Cambridge, Massachusetts

Dear Mr. Conroy:

My colleagues and I are most appreciative of your outstanding performance on the task force investigating "Top Ten" fugitives Raymond Luc Levasseur and Thomas W. Manning and their associates.

Your professionalism and intricate knowledge of the city of Cambridge, where most of the subjects in this case resided, greatly enhanced this investigation. Additionally, the assistance you provided in analyzing evidence and participating in physical surveillances was commendable.

This case serves as a striking example of law enforcement effectiveness when agencies from varying jurisdictions work closely together toward a common goal. You can be proud of your contributions to this successful endeavor, and my associates welcome the opportunity to work with you again.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster
Director
