IN CITY COUNCIL

COUNCILLOR WALTER SULLIVAN

March 24, 1980

- WHEREAS: On February 16, 1980, Dan Woo, Proprietor of Hunan Restaurant, and Ruby, his charming wife, inaugurated the Chinese New Year 4678 by a reception at the Hunan Restaurant in Central Square which was attended by many local celebrities and city officials, patrons and friends; and
- WHEREAS: The hospitality and neighborliness which they accorded their guests on the inception of "The Year of the Monkey" will long be remembered by those in attendance at this memorable event; and
- WHEREAS: The observance of this long standing Chinese tradition exemplified best the Chinese contribution to the culture and social life of America which is a blend of the best of many diverse cultures and customs which together represent the strength and resilience of the United States of America; therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council of the City of Cambridge, acting in behalf of all the citizens of Cambridge, extends to Dan and Ruby Woo and the Chinese community their best wishes for good health and success in the coming year with the fervent hope that they will continue to promote and hold dear the best of their cultural heritage and social ideals which have been the foundations of the oldest civilization of the world; and be it further
- RESOLVED: That this resolution be spread upon the minutes of the City Council and a copy thereof be sent to Dan and Ruby Woo, in recognition of their respected place in this community.
