

City of Cambridge

O-10.

IN CITY COUNCIL

October 16, 2000

MAYOR GALLUCCIO
 COUNCILLOR BORN
 COUNCILLOR BRAUDE
 COUNCILLOR DAVIS
 COUNCILLOR DECKER
 VICE MAYOR MAHER
 COUNCILLOR REEVES
 COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
 COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

WHEREAS The City regularly hires casual workers for temporary assignments under the so-called Nine-Week Program; and

WHEREAS Most of the individuals who receive these jobs are interested in longer term employment opportunities but lack skills or work history; and

WHEREAS The City and the Commonwealth are in the midst of unprecedented economic and employment growth yet these individuals have been left behind due to factors such as lack of skills, job history or other local factors; and

WHEREAS In the past it has been suggested that these employees be a focus for entry point job workforce development and job training efforts; and

WHEREAS The City's workforce development effort could be helpful in linking these individuals to training and full-time employment; now therefore be it

ORDERED That the City Manager confer with the Office of Workforce Development and other appropriate City Departments to determine what services are provided to participants in the Nine-Week Program during and after their employment and report back to this City Council by November 6, 2000; and be it further

ORDERED That the City Manager confer with the Office of Workforce Development and develop a process to ensure that individuals hired through the 9-week program are provided an employment and training plan that can help lead these individuals to permanent private or public employment and long-term employment security.

In City Council October 16, 2000.
 Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.
 Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

O-10

MAYOR GALLUCCIO

WHEREAS The City regularly hires casual workers for temporary assignments under the so-called 9-week program; and

WHEREAS Most of the individuals who receive these jobs are interested in longer term employment opportunities but lack skills or work history; and

WHEREAS The City and the Commonwealth are in the midst of unprecedented economic and employment growth yet these individuals have been left behind due to factors such as lack of skills, job history or other local factors; and

WHEREAS In the past it has been suggested that these employees be a focus for entry point job workforce development and job training efforts; and

WHEREAS The City's workforce development effort could be helpful in linking these individuals to training and full-time employment; now therefore be it

ORDERED That the City Manager confer with the Office of Workforce Development and other appropriate City Departments to determine what services are provided to participants in the Nine-Week Program during and after their employment and report back to this City Council by November 6, 2000; and be it further

ORDERED That the City Manager confer with the Office of Workforce Development and develop a process to ensure that individuals hired through the 9-week program are provided an employment and training plan that can help lead these individuals to permanent private or public employment and long-term employment security.

City of Cambridge

O-10.

IN CITY COUNCIL

October 16, 2000

MAYOR GALLUCCIO

- WHEREAS The City regularly hires casual workers for temporary assignments under the so-called Nine-Week Program; and
- WHEREAS Most of the individuals who receive these jobs are interested in longer term employment opportunities but lack skills or work history; and
- WHEREAS The City and the Commonwealth are in the midst of unprecedented economic and employment growth yet these individuals have been left behind due to factors such as lack of skills, job history or other local factors; and
- WHEREAS In the past it has been suggested that these employees be a focus for entry point job workforce development and job training efforts; and
- WHEREAS The City's workforce development effort could be helpful in linking these individuals to training and full-time employment; now therefore be it
- ORDERED That the City Manager confer with the Office of Workforce Development and other appropriate City Departments to determine what services are provided to participants in the Nine-Week Program during and after their employment and report back to this City Council by November 6, 2000; and be it further
- ORDERED That the City Manager confer with the Office of Workforce Development and develop a process to ensure that individuals hired through the 9-week program are provided an employment and training plan that can help lead these individuals to permanent private or public employment and long-term employment security.

CM 295

Order #10

Services provided to participants in the Nine-Week Program during and after their employment.

Mayor Galluccio

In City Council October 16, 2000

ORDER ADOPTED