

Cambridge, June 10 1992

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

The undersigned respectfully pray

"The Christian Church of Yahshua" requests permission to distribute free literature (Bibles, pamphlets of scriptural helps) in the Harvard Square area, in areas of unused portions of the sidewalk, using a small table (approximately 1'½ by 3' square), together with 3 small signs (approximately 1' by 1' square) and a small metal rack (approximately 1' by 1' square) to display our literature. During the days in which we will be doing this, it will be for approximately 5 hours, yet not on a daily basis. We request for permission to do this from June through August of 1992. We do not solicit or request any donation in exchange for our free literature.

Sincerely,

Jerry Williams
