

To His Honor the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen of the City of Cambridge.

The undersigned, having laid out and built a street fifty-feet wide, running from Brattle St to Mount Auburn Street
on land lately purchased by him of J.
R. Lowell, respectfully petitions the City of Cambridge to accept the same as a public street.

Thomas Gaffield.

Cambridge August 2. 1878.

Plan furnished, of St. called "Channing Street" no
obstructions, and finished to the grade given and shown on profile.
(Street 50 feet wide)
