MAYOR REEVES
VICE MAYOR CYR
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross is a humanitarian organization, led by volunteers, who prevent, prepare for, and respond to emergencies by developing and offering programs and services which address critical human, health and safety needs of the communities which it serves and which are consistent with its congressional charter and the fundamental principles of the International Red Cross movement; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross meets the immediate emergency needs of disaster victims everyday in Massachusetts by providing food, clothing, shelter and other necessities following fires, floods and other natural and man-made disasters; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross continues to provide emergency communications to military members and their families throughout the world, including the American troops based in Somalia and the Persian Gulf; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross works daily in our community to ensure the health and safety of our families through training in CPR, first aid and water safety; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross is a leader in efforts to stop the spread of HIV/AIDs through education programs in the work place, school and homeless shelters and through its careful testing of donated blood; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross emphasizes self-reliance and concern for others to help keep our community and our country strong through the promotion of preventive health measures and health education courses; and

WHEREAS: The American Red Cross receives no financial support from the federal or state governments, all of us can help support our American Red Cross by contributing our money, and our time as volunteers; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby proclaim the month of March 1993 as AMERICAN RED CROSS MONTH in the city of Cambridge, urging all citizens to join us in supporting all of the Red Cross programs and in recognizing this outstanding organization and its contributions to our community.
